These guidelines and procedures shall be established by the authority given in the Bylaws of Associated Students, Incorporated of California State University San Marcos.

I. TYPE OF ELECTION (ASI Bylaws Article 22: Elections)

- A. General Election: A regularly scheduled election for all Associated Students, Inc. elective positions. Special issues, such as a fee referendum or amendments to the ASI Bylaws, may also be included in the general election. The general election is held annually during the spring term the Monday- Wednesday prior to spring break. If students are not in session due to university closure, alternate dates for the general election shall be determined by the ASI Elections Committee.
- B. Special Election: An election called to determine special issues, including but not limited to fee referendum, recall elections, amendments to the ASI Bylaws, or to fill a vacancy of office. A special election may be called at the discretion of the ASI Board of Directors. Exact dates shall be determined by the ASI Elections Committee.
- C. Run-off election: Follows a general or special election when a tie (equal votes) exists between candidates, or a tie regarding special issues. Run-off elections shall be held the second or third academic week after a general or special election. Exact dates shall be determined by the ASI Elections Committee.

II. REGULATION OF ASI ELECTIONS

- A. The ASI Elections Committee is governed by the ASI Bylaws. The ASI Elections Committee has authority to oversee the Elections process and complaints received. Specifics regarding the ASI Elections Committee are stated in ASI Bylaws.
- B. The ASI Elections Committee is required to follow the CA Education Code, which states, “The election shall be called by posting notices in three public places on the campus at least two weeks before the election and by publishing the notice once a week for two weeks in the campus newspaper published by the student body organization, if there be such a newspaper. The notice shall set forth the time and place of the election, the purpose of the election, the location of the polls, and the hours during which the polls will be open.” The posting shall also take place online and in campus announcements.
- C. ASI Elections shall take place the week prior to the University Spring Break. Exact dates shall be determined by the ASI Elections Committee. Reference approved ASI Elections Timeline for current year.
- D. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of the ASI Bylaws and any Policy or Procedures; the ASI Bylaws shall take precedence.
- E. The following positions shall be elected in the general election of the student body:
 - 1. ASI President (1)
 - 2. ASI Vice President of Finance & Operations (1)

3. ASI Vice President of Student & University Affairs (1)
 4. ASI Chair & Chief of Staff (1)
 5. Representatives from each of the academic colleges. College senators shall be elected from those majoring in one of the various departments of the particular college. (8)
 6. ASI Student at Large for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion (2)
 7. ASI Sustainability Representative (1)
- F. The ASI Elections Committee is responsible for promoting elections and outreaching to the campus community to encourage voter turnout. ASI Elections marketing material will be prepared by ASI Media and Communications Team.
 - G. The ballot will contain pre-approved names running for each office with a space provided for a write-in candidate.
 - H. The person receiving the most votes from such ballots will be deemed the winner.
 - I. Candidates running unopposed must receive 10% of those students who cast votes in ASI election that year to be deemed winner of that position.
 - J. The final result will be provided by the ASI Elections Committee the day after the last election date, provided there are no pending outstanding investigations.
 - K. Current Executive Officers, ASI Board of Directors Representatives, and ASI Student Employees may endorse candidates as students themselves and not as members of ASI, at their own discretion.
 - L. No member of ASI Elections Committee shall be a candidate for any elective office appearing on the ballot or engage in any activity promoting campaigning for or against any candidate.
 - M. The ASI Elections Committee Chair will be authorized to confirm all election results after the closing of the polls. The vote counting process will be held under the direct supervision of the advisors to the ASI Elections Committee. ASI Elections results will then be approved by the ASI Elections Committee prior to the announcement of winners.

III. VOTERS ELIGIBILITY
