CSUSM EXTENDED LEARNING

Since 2004, the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at Cal State San Marcos has provided an intellectual and social community for inquisitive learners 50 years of age and better. Help us sustain this vibrant community of members now and into the future!

OUR CHALLENGE

Our self-support program receives no state funding and costs $225,000 annually to run a full year of quality programming. The Bernard Osher Foundation established a $1 million endowment at CSUSM which provides nearly $40,000 a year, in addition to a potential annual grant of $25,000. Membership and tuition provides $100,000 each year; leaving a gap of $60,000 a year we must fund through additional grants and individual philanthropy.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

There are many ways to support Osher at CSUSM with a tax-deductible charitable gift. Your donations help us keep our membership dues low, provide scholarships to those less fortunate, support program development and community outreach, improve the quality of our faculty and class content, and can help sustain the program for generations to come.

Annual giving: You can make an annual gift via check, cash, credit card, and through gifts of stock or IRA rollover.

Legacy giving: Join our Legacy Society by leaving a gift to Osher in your estate plans as a bequest or through a beneficiary designation.

Gifts that pay income: Receive payments for life and tax benefits by establishing a Charitable Gift Annuity through CSUSM or Charitable Remainder Trust, and your favorite charities such as Osher, can benefit.

ENRICHMENT THROUGH LIFELONG LEARNING

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at Cal State San Marcos is grateful for the support of the Bernard Osher Foundation and our generous donors. Your support helps sustain the quality and longevity of our program, and encourages those in our community to find social connection and promise intellectual wellness through continued learning. We are deeply grateful for your commitment to this diverse yet like-minded community of learners. Thank you for paying it forward.
