RESIDENCY

The law governing residence determination for tuition purposes by the California State university is found in the California Education Code Sections 68000-68090, 68121, 68123, 68124, 89705-89707.5, and 90408 and in the Title V of the California Code of Regulations, Sections 41900-41912.

The general rule is that a student must have been a California resident for at least one year immediately preceding the residence determination date in order to qualify as a "resident student" for tuition purposes. A residence determination date is set for each academic term and is the date from which residence is determined for that term. The residence determination dates are:
