WELCOME TO THE COUGAR FAMILY

Congratulations to your student on their admission to California State University San Marcos!

Welcome to the Cougar family!

We're delighted that your student has chosen Cal State San Marcos as their home to study, learn and grow. We have a dedicated team of faculty and staff eager to help your student navigate their higher education journey, from orientation to graduation and beyond.

Our mission is your student's success. We're proud to be the No. 1-ranked university in the country for student social mobility, which means graduating students into a career that will help them achieve their dreams.

I encourage you and your student to take advantage of the countless opportunities this special campus offers. Our faculty and staff are here to guide you and your student as they pursue their academic and personal goals. Please don't hesitate to ask questions or reach out if you or your student need support.

Go Cougars!

Sincerely,

Ellen Neufeldt, Ed.D.
President

Today, you will receive a lot of helpful information to support your student in their transition to the university. We hope that by the end of the day that you will feel confident in your student's decision to join the CSUSM community.

CSUSM is proud to be a campus that values and celebrates our collective differences. We are committed to the ideals of respect, care, and civility for all members of our campus community. We hope that in joining the CSUSM community your student will embrace and support those values that are central to our campus culture.

As our campus continues to grow, we have added a wide variety of new centers and programs to assist your student as they continue their educational journey. As the first in my family to attend college, I know firsthand how important it is to become familiar with all of the campus resources available to support student success. If faced with challenges, we want you to know that there is always someone available to help and support your student.

Student Affairs is committed to your student's success and we welcome them to the CSUSM family. If there is anything that you or your student needs, please don't hesitate to reach out to any member of the Student Affairs team for help.

In COUGAR spirit,

Viridiana Diaz, Ed.D.
Vice President for Student Affairs

CSUSM HISTORY

1990

President Bill W. Stacy and 12 founding faculty members lay the groundwork for CSUSM, its mission and its first nine majors. Construction begins on the permanent campus home.

1998

A generous donation from Bob and Ruth Mangrum helps build Mangrum Track and Field, home to two of the university's first sports – cross country and track & field.

2011

The Cougars add three new sports: volleyball, men's basketball, and women's basketball, bringing the total of athletic teams to 13.

2016

The Sports Center becomes the first on-campus home court for the volleyball and basketball teams. Student enrollment tops 15,000 and the university's 37,000th graduate crosses the commencement stage. The first fight song is created.

2019

Ellen J. Neufeldt is appointed as the fourth president in the university's history.

1989

The 304-acre Prohoroff Poultry Farm in the foothills of San Marcos is purchased by the CSU to establish the first comprehensive U.S. university to be founded in two decades, and the 20th campus in the CSU system.

1991

Seven students are awarded the first Bachelor of Arts degrees.

2004

Kellogg Library – CSUSM's first freestanding library building – opens its doors.

2014

The doors open at the University Student Union (USU), which becomes the new hub of student life on campus.

2018

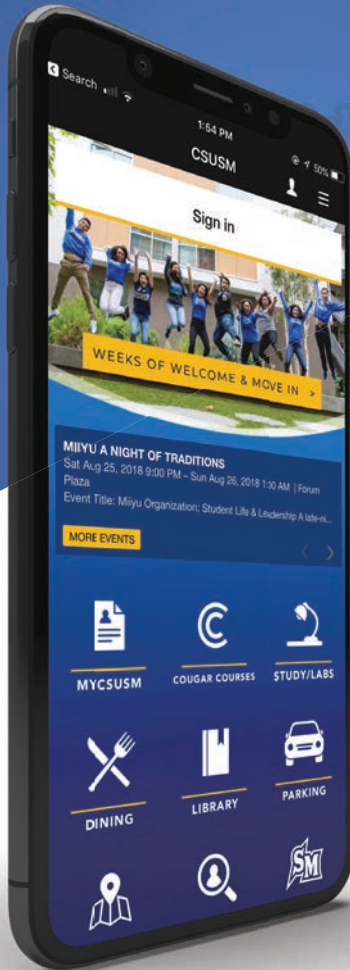

CSUSM makes history as the youngest public university to raise $55 million in its first comprehensive fundraising campaign. The effort focused on preparing tomorrow's leaders, building great communities and solving critical issues.

FERPA

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT

Once your student enrolls in classes at CSUSM, the privacy of their records is protected by law. It may come as a surprise when family members call CSUSM and find they cannot gain access to all information concerning their student's records (e.g. grades).

FERPA is a Federal Law that applies to all educational agencies and institutions that receive Department of Education funds (both public and private). FERPA delineates general rights and responsibilities to students and universities regarding student records. Individual institutions craft unique policies for the implementation of FERPA on their campuses.

ADVICE FROM CSUSM FAMILIES

Whether this is your first student going to college or your last, your student taking the next big step in their life can be an emotional time. We recognize that this transition can be difficult for family members too. We hope you find the advice from current family members of students helpful and comforting.

WHAT ADVICE DID YOU GIVE YOUR STUDENT BEFORE THEIR FIRST SEMESTER IN COLLEGE?

- › Make your studies a priority in your schedule.
- › The decisions you make now are yours alone and they will affect the rest of your life.

WHAT WORDS OF ADVICE WOULD YOU GIVE TO FAMILIES OF NEW FIRST YEAR STUDENTS?

- › If your student is away from home, encourage your student to get as involved as possible in order to build a “family” away from home.
- › Encourage independence and let your student make their own decisions.
- › If they do not call you back, they are most likely just busy. Be patient.

WHAT MAJOR SUPPORT DID YOUR STUDENT NEED DURING HIS OR HER FIRST SEMESTER?

- › Emotional, financial and overall parental support.
- › Someone to listen to them. Someone to validate their decisions and be their biggest cheerleader!

Family Programs offers services and events to keep you engaged and informed in campus resources! csusm.edu/families

EMPOWERING VS ENABLING YOUR STUDENT

A student's first place to turn in moments of stress and frustration is their support system. With you supporting their success in college, they are more likely to succeed. This is why it is imperative that as a family support system, you empower your student to find the help they need. The better informed you are of the services and resources on campus, the stronger your coaching through difficult situations with your student will be.

Your student will not always be able to rely on you to fight their battles, and college is an opportunity to learn independence. Consider these scenarios below as common moments your student will look to you for reassurance. The best way to support is through empowerment. Contact New Student & Family Programs at families@csusm.edu for additional support.

FIRST YEAR TRANSITION CALENDAR

This is a big year of transition! The list below might provide some assistance in anticipating challenges your student might face throughout the year. There are various campus departments and resources available at CSUSM to support your student during this exciting yet challenging year. Empowering your student to access these support services may help ease many of the anxieties and concerns your student may face. Encourage them to ask for help and remind them that whatever they are going through, they are not alone. The First Year Experience Path: <https://www.csusm.edu/nsfp/fyepath/index.html> and Transfer Success Initiatives: <https://www.csusm.edu/nsfp/transfers/index.html> are great resources as your student gets started at CSUSM.

STUDENT SUCCESS TIPS

During this period of transition, you may find yourself placed in more of a coaching role rather than a directing role when it comes to your student and their life decisions. Below you will find some strategies to share with your student as your student navigates balancing school, work, family, friends, and future plans.

3 STEPS FOR EFFECTIVE TIME MANAGEMENT

Following these three steps may help guide your student to use their time more effectively. As they go through the day, they should ask themselves, "What is the best use of my time right now?"

1. ORGANIZING

- › Better organization will help your student use their time efficiently
- › Every day, your student should make a list of the things they need to get done so they don't forget
- › List all items, not just homework; include their personal "to do's" as well.

2. PRIORITIZING

- › Now that your student has made their list, encourage them to highlight the most important items that need immediate attention.
- › Keep in mind deadlines and amount of time it takes to complete each task.
- › Indicate which items on your list can be delayed, if needed.

3. SCHEDULING

- › Now that your student has prioritized the list, have them create a weekly schedule that works for them; include your class schedule, personal appointments, work schedule, sleep, etc.
- › Their schedule should include breaks, socializing, and room for flexibility.
- › Encourage your student to use a scheduling tool (planner, apps, calendar, etc).
- › Have them make adjustments as needed – remind them to give themselves extra time to be flexible.

Each student receives a Planner and Orientation handbook, which includes important dates and directory information to assist them in prioritizing course assignments and campus deadlines. As your student moves through their first semester and multiple semesters at CSUSM, they will find a time management system that works best for them.

Y. Nguyen, May 2021

"The Career Center at CSUSM is amazing at providing support and tools needed by students, business majors especially. I was amazed by all of their services offered such as free professional headshots, resume/cover letter workshops, and business etiquette dinners. I truly would have never learned any of these skills in my college career had it not been for the Career Center. Everyone is kind and supportive, and are always willing to help you with whatever you need. If the Career Center doesn't offer the help themselves, they will certainly find other resources or options for you so that you'll always get an answer. They really are an amazing resource to have and use at CSUSM and I wish more students can realize that."

Faculty Mentoring Program

The main mission of the Faculty Mentoring Program is to help students from limited socioeconomic backgrounds to complete their college education. Understanding and respecting cultures other than one's own is at the core of our program. Thus, the FMP will work tirelessly to ensure that all CSUSM students, regardless of immigration/refugee status, are made to feel welcome, supported and respected.

Qualifications:

- Have Junior/Senior student status
- Identify as 1st Generation College Student or Demonstrate Financial Need

Requirements:

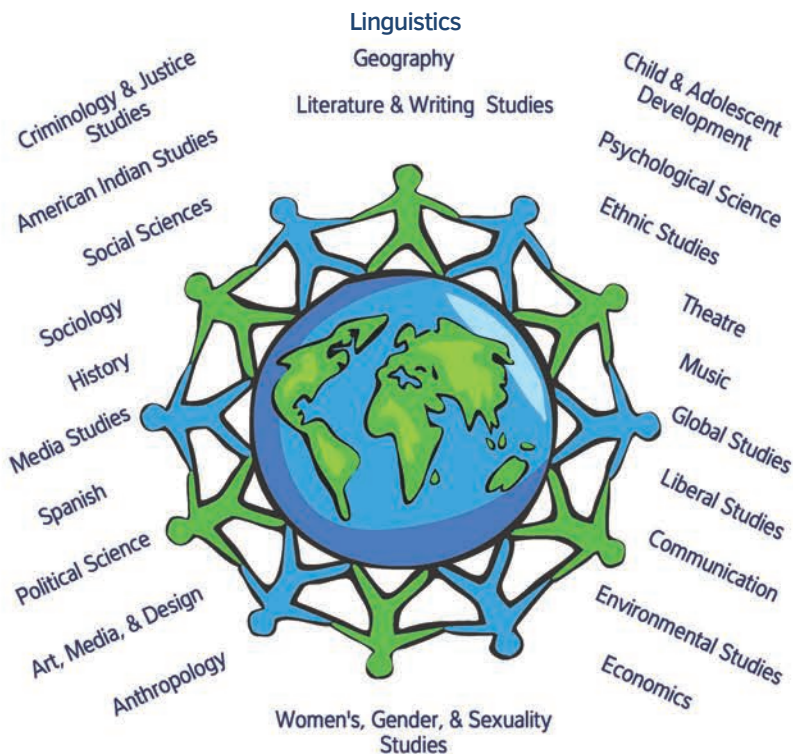

- Complete and Submit an Application
- Meet at least once a month with a faculty mentor
- Participate in FMP Events as your schedule permits

LINGUISTICS

CSUSM

Bachelor of Arts in Linguistics

with concentrations in:

Language, Culture, Society
Language Studies
Speech and Language Sciences

Minor in Linguistics

What is linguistics?

Linguistics is the scientific study of language. It investigates how languages change over time, the roles languages play in culture and identity, how we learn languages, how language and thought are intertwined, and much more.

What can I do with a degree in linguistics?

The study of linguistics opens up a wide range of career options, including: speech therapy, technical writing; advertising, marketing, and naming/branding; human/machine interaction; government analyst and the Foreign Service; the law; teaching (TESL, K-12); translating and interpreting - the list goes on!

For more information, please visit our website.

Liberal Studies

SCAN ME

Do you want to become a K-8 teacher?

The Liberal Studies program is the place for you! With two options that meet the subject matter requirements for all K-8 teachers, Liberal Studies prepares you to go on to a credential program and then into a classroom of your own. Students graduating with a Liberal Studies degree do not need to take the three-part California Subject Examination for Teachers (CSET). And if you decide to pursue a career other than teacher, our broad-based liberal arts education prepares you for a wide range of satisfying careers.

ENCOURAGE YOUR STUDENT TO GET INVOLVED WITH CO-CURRICULAR LEARNING!

While a tremendous amount of learning will happen within the classroom, it is your student's experiences outside the classroom that will likely result in the stories recounted when describing their college experience. In addition, engaging in co-curricular learning opportunities helps prepare them for post-graduation success. To learn more about co-curricular learning, please visit:

<https://www.csusm.edu/sa/ccm/index.html>

Civic Engagement & Social Responsibility

Learning Outcome: Recognize, develop, and practice civic responsibility, an appreciation of diverse cultures, and a commitment to society and our environment.

Leadership & Interpersonal Development

Learning Outcome: Cultivate introspective leadership skills to develop inclusive leaders, attuned to one's self and the needs of others.

Career & Professional Development

Learning Outcome: Actively practice self-advocacy while demonstrating professionalism, technological competency, and effective communication skills.

Critical Thinking & Ethical Reasoning

Learning Outcome: Demonstrate effective analysis of information, ethical dilemmas, and perspectives to make informed decisions.

Holistic Wellness & Self-Efficacy

Learning Outcome: Manage personal affairs reflective of physical, mental, and spiritual well-being that positively align with professional, personal, and financial obligations and goals.

To learn more about how to get involved, please visit:

UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

The University Police Department is open
24/7, 365 days a year.

The Police Department is assigned to protect students, staff, faculty and state property at Cal State San Marcos and the surrounding communities.
All police officers are POST certified.

University Police Department (UPD) offers programs that enhance student safety on campus as well as in their daily lives off campus.

Community Service Officer (CSO) – These employees are students at the University and work as the eyes and ears of UPD. They gain valuable experience in the field of law enforcement as well as help their fellow students.

Safety Escorts – A police officer or CSO will safely escort (by walking or by vehicle) any student to and from their vehicle, class or dorm room. This service is available 24 hours a day to campus locations.

Emergency Notification System – The Alertus Emergency Notification System, a public address system allows UPD to lock campus down in a matter of seconds and issues warnings to all computers, speaker phones and digital displays on campus. Additionally, email, text messages and phone calls are sent to all email addresses/phone numbers in the system.

SEXUAL VIOLENCE ADVOCACY & EDUCATION

"We provide trauma-informed, confidential support, advocacy, prevention, and education related to gender & power-based violence."

Services for Survivors

Individuals can speak with a sexual violence advocate in a confidential environment where reports will not automatically lead to a legal or Title IX report. The following services are available to students impacted by stalking, sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, dating/domestic violence, sexual assault or rape:

- If desired, accompaniment to:
 - Medical appointments
 - Court/Legal meetings
 - University Title IX meetings
- Help with restraining orders
- On campus advocacy for academic or housing concerns
- Referrals to on- and off-campus resources.
- Information about options

Prevention & Education

We offer a variety of innovative initiatives to educate and build awareness on complex issues related to gender and power-based violence. Check out our website to learn how students can get involved through peer education and internships!

To schedule a meeting with a confidential advocate:

KNOW YOUR TITLE IX

The California State University does not discriminate on the basis of gender, which includes sex and gender identity or expression, or sexual orientation in its education programs or activities.

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and certain other federal and state laws, prohibit discrimination on the basis of gender or sexual orientation in employment, as well as in all educational programs and activities operated by the University (both on and off campus).

The protection against discrimination, harassment, and retaliation on the basis of gender or sexual orientation includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, gender based dating, domestic violence, and stalking.
