

4th International Research Symposium

November 16, 2023

California State University San Marcos
Extended Learning Building (ELB) 373

Hosted by the Committee for International Research with support from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research and in collaboration with Global Programs and Services

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Luiseño/Payómkawichum people. Today, the meeting place of CSUSM and its surrounding areas is still home to the six federally recognized bands of the La Jolla, Pala, Pauma, Pechanga, Rincon, Soboba Luiseño/Payómkawichum people. It is also important to acknowledge that this land remains the shared space among the Kuupangaxwicheem/ Cupeño and Kumeyaay and Ipai peoples.

Land Acknowledgment collaboratively created by the California Indian Culture and Sovereignty Center, CSUSM American Indian Studies and the Palomar College American Indian Studies. Tribal consultation and approval by Southern California Chairman's Association on June 28, 2019.
