

2019-2020 Title IX Annual Report

California State University, San Marcos

California State University, San Marcos does not discriminate on the basis of sex, gender, or sexual orientation in its education programs or activities. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and certain other federal and state laws, prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex in all education programs and activities operated by the university (both on and off campus) that receive Federal financial assistance. Title IX protects all people regardless of their gender or gender identity from sex discrimination, which includes sexual harassment and sexual misconduct.

This report presents information regarding allegations of sexual misconduct, dating and domestic violence, and stalking. The report captures information regarding known allegations; without additional information about unreported incidents of sexual misconduct on our campus. The ongoing engagement of the community is essential to our efforts to prevent sexual misconduct in our community and to maintain a safe and respectful campus. Any questions, comments, and concerns are always welcome by contacting our office at 760-750-6020.
