18. Reason(s) for changing this course:

As part of the LTWR curriculum revision (see P-2 form), we have developed a revised 300A course. The new 300A is so critical for our students' success that we want to encourage them to take it early on in the major by making it a pre-requisite for 300B (which surveys contemporary literary criticism and theory). 300B is currently the second half of the 300A-300B sequence, but in the future, we would like students to take 300A first, as it will help prepare them for 300B. Because we are changing 300A, which will no longer be a survey of early literary criticism/theory, we need to change the title of 300B so that it no longer says "History and Practice of Literary Commentary II," but just "300B: History and Practice of Literary Commentary."
