The International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma Program (DP) Teacher Studies and Preparation: From Theory to Practice develops theoretical and practical knowledge of the IB DP philosophy, international mindedness, inquiry pedagogy, and curriculum design. Successful completion of this class, EDUC 695, and 2 semesters of the IB Teacher Studies and Preparation Field Study (EDUC 696), qualifies the candidate to apply for the IB Educator Certificate. The target candidates for this class are newly credentialed teachers, experienced teachers, teacher leaders, and site administrators.
17. Justification for offering this topic.

The International Baccalaureate Educator Certificate is currently offered at CSUSM for teachers credentialed in the primary years (elementary) and the middle years school settings. This class is one in a 10 unit course of study to offer the Educator Certificate to high school teachers, which in IB is called the Diploma Program.
