18. Reason(s) for changing this course:
The current "enrollment requirement" is inadequate to ensuring that students heed advice about COMM 100 & 200. Implementing a prerequisite of both lower-division preparatory courses (i.e., COMM 100 and 200) for both COMM and MASS majors ensures that students will complete foundational courses that introduce them to communication as a social science field for inquiry, research and writing skills thus facilitating their success in COMM 390.

Hi Suzanne.

sorry about that oversight! Below are my responses to each question as applicable to both C2 forms.

Q16. Yes, the courses [COMM 390 and COMM 402] fulfill a requirement for a major, specifically in the Communication Department.

Students majoring in communication or mass media are required to complete core requirements, one of which is a research methods course. Students may choose to complete either COMM 390 or COMM 402.

Q17: No there is no impact on other disciplines.

Let me know if you have any other questions. Michelle

Hi Michelle,

I hope this finds you well. UCC is reviewing COMM 390 and COMM 402 tomorrow. In preparing for our meeting, I noticed that you did not check the boxes for #16 or #17 on either form. These questions are actually mandatory on the C-2 form. Can you possibly review on Monday morning and let me know what boxes should be checked so that I can expedite the review process in UCC? We meet at 1pm.
