18. Reason(s) for changing this course:

We recently added a new course to the PSYC and CHAD curriculum that is intended for students in those programs. We now have PSYC 331 to cover infancy and childhood for PSYC and CHAD majors. PSYC 330 is no longer appropriate for the PSYC major or minor, even as an elective. This proposed change will prevent students from using PSYC 330 as an elective in the PSYC major and minor.
