18. Reason(s) for changing this course:

The reason of the course abbreviation change is so that "Educational Technology" can be created as a course search category in PeopleSoft for students to easily find the Educational Technology courses. The goal of the course description change is to provide a clear description of the course content. Since technology constantly changes, the technology tools that will be covered in this course will also change but the foci will stay the same. The revised description will allow instructors to better communicate the content of the course to students while making adjustments to keep the course up-to-date, which is crucial for technology courses to stay relevant. The enrollment restriction is no longer applicable since this course will be offered as part of the Educational Technology Certificate through Extended Learning.
