Catalog Description: Applications in Child and Youth Development Considers the social, cultural, cognitive, emotional, linguistic, and behavioral development of children and adolescents from multidisciplinary, multicultural, and applied perspectives. Students will learn major theories of development in order to apply that knowledge to their work in evidence-based services and programs for children and youth. Includes a field experience component through which students will consider how their in-class learning is enacted in the lived experiences of children and youth. Special attention is given to identifying multicultural and socio-cultural influences on development. May not be taken for credit by students who have received credit for HD 370-3. Also offered as EDUC 380. Students may not receive credit for both. C-2
#18 response

Please find attached an updated P2 narrative that includes additional details about the specific program changes. I have included a copy of the current catalog, a marked up copy of the proposed revisions and supporting documents. I have included the curriculum worksheet. I would like to make a blanket rationale on the C2 form line #18 that states, based on our assessment report and self study Human Development has developed their own course in statistics and research methods specific to the field of Human Development. The proposed change is to amend the perquisites from Psyc to HD. Finally I will be ccing you on emails to psychology, sociology, anthropology and mathematics. Please let me know if you need any additional information. I believe that I have addressed all of your requests.

I have paper copies of the documents so if you need paper copies, please let me know.

Alice
