18. Reason(s) for changing this course:

The EDUC course has selected a textbook and scholarly readings that draw from the education literature to provide a background for students who will be fulfilling the service learning component in classrooms. There are no prerequisites (other than LDGE) and the course carries UDCG credit. The HD version requires multiple HD courses as prerequisites, thus it is a majors course, which doesn't satisfy the requirements for GE (specifically: no discipline-specific prereqs are allowed). Consequently, the two courses are focused on different audiences, require different levels of preparation, and contain different content.
