18. Reason(s) for changing this course:

The current co-/pre-requisite language is just too confusing for students (as well as faculty and advisors). It was originally worded in this manner to be all-inclusive for matriculated students and for Extended Learning (EL) students in the pre-Health profession program. The addition of "consent of instructor" and removal of MATH 132 to the new co-requisite will allow the instructor of the EL cohort class to admit students who have successfully taken a course such as MATH 132, without having to confuse most students with the previous wording in the course description.
