18. Reason(s) for changing this course:
 Students in the Kinesiology graduate program are grouped into cohorts based upon year of admission. By design, both cohorts currently enrolled in the program should take the seminar course together (both 1st and 2nd year students). This will require that some students take the seminar courses out of sequence; therefore the prerequisite should be removed. Further, knowledge and experience gained from KINE 506 is not necessary for successful completion of KINE 507.
