- Course Title: Integrating Video in K-12 Education

- Course Description:
  This course prepares educators to instruct K-12 students in media literacy using video to enhance understanding of curriculum standards. Teachers will use student achievement data to drive selection of the content used for lessons in their classrooms. Elements of multimedia, the Visual and Performing Arts (VAPA) and content standards will be emphasized.

- Course Objectives: (Provide specific student learning outcomes and how they will be achieved.)
  By the end of this course, students will be able to:
  - Understand elements of good storytelling related to media literacy and standards-based (related to curriculum standards and VAPA) video production.
  - Use video production tools to plan, shoot and edit videos for classroom use.
  - Apply principles of quality sound and lighting in video production.
  - Create Student Video Plans based on student achievement data.
  - Create at least 3 classroom videos, one of which will be submitted to a student film competition.
  - Use an online environment for communication and collaboration involving problem solving and sharing with other educators.

- Evaluation: (What will be the basis for grades? How will you know that the students have achieved the course objectives?)
  The following artifacts will be submitted to provide evidence that objectives have been met:
  1. Student Video plan with evidence of analysis of student achievement data included in a reflection.
  2. Three or more final student/classroom videos demonstrating understanding of effective lighting, sound and storytelling principles.
  3. At least one lesson plan in video production listing both VAPA and content standards and a reflection on how media literacy principles were applied.
  4. Demonstrate regular activity in online environment based on in logs.

- Course Length:
  This course is based on 45 hours of instruction with follow-up in an online community.

- Proposed Date(s): Spring 2007

- Location: Held in National City at San Diego County Office of Education labs.

- Support Needs: NONE

- Comments: This course is part of a partnership between the College of Education and the San Diego County Office of Education to support an Arts in Education grant from the Federal Department of Education.
