In planning the components of our Extended Studies program at Cal State San Marcos, this office consults closely with the academic colleges and departments to determine the suitability of course content, teaching methods and instructor qualifications. To assist us in evaluating your proposed course for credit, please submit this completed form to our office as soon as possible. Questions before you submit? Call me at (760)750-8713.

- Course Title: Differentiation, Grouping for Instruction, Accommodating Individual Needs in the Classroom (K-12)

- Course Description:
  This is an online course designed to help teachers improve their abilities to differentiate, group for instruction and accommodate individual needs in the classroom. Grounded in the work of Tomlinson and the New Teacher Center, this course presents techniques to help teachers set expectations, evaluate student work, group for instruction, assess progress, and accommodate individual needs. A full range of tools and strategies are offered, as well as practice with the various techniques.

- Course Objectives:
  View classroom examples of differentiation and grouping for instruction. (online resources)
  Use techniques presented to plan for accommodating individual needs in the classroom.

- Evaluation:
  Time spent in programs is reported via the Prep Period online management system. Students must send a report of their time in the system, as well as written reports of activities. Students must complete activities related to each of the modules below.

  Module 1: Foundations of Planning
  Complete the five activities for the Foundations of Planning module.

  Module 2: English Learner Mentoring—Grouping for Instruction
  Complete the “Grouping for Instruction” activity.

  Module 3: Mathematics Pedagogy in Practice—Differentiation
  Complete the “Differentiation” and “Grouping” activities.

- Course Length:
  15 hours in online course
  5-10 additional hours in outside class work to complete assignments

- Proposed Date(s): September 15, 2006 → ongoing

- Location:
  This is an online course found at www.prepperiod.org.

- Support Needs:
  Students will need to have the latest version of Flash, a recent Internet browser, and Adobe Acrobat loaded on their computer. The technical requirements are also specified on the site, with links to support sites if software needs to be downloaded.

- Comments: These online classes have been produced and currently available through San Diego County Office of Education.
