D	On or before the Add/Drop deadline: end of the second week of semester (end of approximately 10% of the academic term).	•	Student may use the SMART system or submit a Schedule Adjustment Form to the Enrollment Services Information Center.
		•	No record of the course appears on student records.
R	A.C. (1 A.11/D. 1 11)	•	No signature approval required.
O	After the Add/Drop deadline, and on or before the last day of the twelfth week of the semester (end of	•	Student must present serious and compelling reasons ¹ for dropping the course.
P	approximately 80% of instruction).	•	Course Instructor and Dean of the College offering the course (or designee) must sign the Schedule Adjustment Form.
S		•	After obtaining signature approval, student must submit the completed Schedule Adjustment Form to the Enrollment Services Information Center.
		•	Given approval, a grade of "W" appears on student records.
W	Beyond the last day of the twelfth week of the semester (beyond the end of approximately 80% of instruction), until the deadline for instructor submission of grades.	•	Student must demonstrate that the need to drop the course is due to circumstances beyond the student's control, as in cases of serious illness, accident, family emergency, etc., and that a grade of "I" (where acceptable to the instructor) is impractical, given these circumstances.
I		•	Course Instructor and Dean of the College offering the course (or designee) must sign the Schedule Adjustment Form.
T H		•	After obtaining signature approval, student must submit the completed Schedule Adjustment Form to the Enrollment Services Information Center.
_		•	Given approval, a grade of "W" appears on student records.
D R	Up to one year after the end of the term	•	Student may petition for retroactive dropping of single courses by following the procedures outlined in the preceding section of this chart.
A		•	Student may petition for retroactive dropping of all courses attempted during the term by submitting a written request to the Dean of Students.
W		•	In this petition, the student must present serious and compelling reasons for the retroactive drops.
A		•	*The petition is reviewed by a committee consisting of the Dean of Students (or designee), the Dean of the College of the student's major (or designee; Arts and Sciences in the case of
L			undeclared majors), and a faculty member from the Student Affairs Committee (SAC). (When this faculty member is
S			unavailable, a replacement may be appointed on an ad hoc basis by the Dean of the College, from among the College faculty.)
		•	Given approval by the review committee, the Dean of Students will sign the petition; grades of "W" will appear on student records for all courses attempted during the term.

*Deadlines are strictly enforced. Students wishing to petition for an exception based on circumstances beyond their control may do so in writing on a petition form available in the Office of Registration and Records.

¹Instructors may consider inadequate preparation to be a serious and compelling reason through the first half of the term.
