

 The Center for Leadership Innovation and Mentorship Building (CLIMB) presents

PRESIDENTIAL LEADERSHIP IN TURBULENT TIMES

WHAT MATTERS IN 2012 AND BEYOND

Friday, October 26, 2012

7:30 - 9:30 am

California State University San Marcos

Markstein Hall, Room 125

Join CLIMB for this timely presentation on presidential leadership in this important election year. Our dynamic guest speaker is Dr. Carl Luna, a professor of political science at San Diego Mesa College and lecturer at the University of San Diego.

In 1999-2000 Dr. Luna was a senior Fulbright Scholar lecturing on American Politics and international political economy at Nizhni Novgorod State University in the Russian Federation. In addition to teaching and research, he is a frequent commentator on politics for local, national, and international media. Dr. Luna has been a frequent contributor to the Op-Ed pages of the San Diego Union-Tribune and wrote the UT's first political weblog from 2003-2007. He is a contributing author to the anthology of presidential biographies, Public Pillars, Private Lives and a revised volume on the presidency: Imperial Presidents: The Rise of Executive Power from Roosevelt to Obama.

This event is FREE to attend and open to the business community and all CSUSM students, alumni, faculty, and staff. Space is limited; please RSVP by October 22 online at www.csusm.edu/climb.

Complimentary parking and breakfast will be provided.

For more information contact Carrie Smith, casmith@csusm.edu, (760) 750-4270

California State University
SAN MARCOS