

California State University San Marcos, College of Science and Math, and The Classical Academies will host a free Science Festival on Saturday, Mar 16, 2013.

10:00am – 4:00pm at CSUSM Campus

Here are some of the activities that can be used toward Girl Scout Badge work:

Brownies: Household Elf

Step 2 – To Change the Tide activity and Conservation Psychology presentation

Step 3 – Natural Cleaners

Step 4 – Participate in the E-recycling event, or attend the EcoTour of Campus or the BP Biofuels table.

Juniors: Animal Habitats

Step 1 – The San Diego Zoo/CRES table

Step 2 – Visit both the Native vs. Invasive Species area and the Origami Frogs activity

Step 3 – Making an Animal Nest

Cadettes: Eating for Beauty

Step 1 – Nutrition Labels and Antioxidants

Step 2 – Water in Our Bodies

Step 5 – Energizing our Bodies – Examining Energy Drinks

Seniors: Sky

Step 1 – Colors of the Sky (with Sky Stories) and either Solar Telescope or Plasma Chamber

Step 4 - Sky Stories: must participate fully by making up your own story

Step 3 – Rockets and either To Infinity and Beyond or Flight Test

Ambassadors: Water

Step 2 – The Sounds of Water

Step 3 – To Change the Tide AND Oceanography

Step 4 – Attend Conservation Psychology presentation and Water in Our Bodies table

For more information, see website or contact Laurie Schmelzer at lschmelz@csusm.edu.