

Spring 2013 Academic Success Workshop

Presented by:

Personalized Academic Success Services (PASS) and Undergraduate Advising Services (UAS)

DEALING WITH ROAD BLOCKS ON THE JOURNEY TOWARDS ACADEMIC SUCCESS: Strategies in Avoiding and Working Through Academic Probation

Learn helpful strategies to avoid/resolve being placed on Academic Probation. We'll discuss common barriers and how to overcome those barriers with proven strategies and resources to get you back on the road to academic success.

Note: Freshmen currently on Academic Probation will be able to have their registration hold removed by attending this workshop. Students in ACE, SSS, CAMP, and EOP should check with program counselors/advisors to see if they should attend.

Thursday, February 7th, 12:00-1:00 p.m., Career Center Lab (Craven 1400)
Wednesday, February 13th, 3:00-4:00 p.m., Career Center Lab (Craven 1400)
Thursday, March 14th, 12:00-1:00 p.m., Markstein 125
Thursday, April 25th, 12:00-1:00 p.m., Location: Markstein 125

To register, visit: www.csusm.edu/class/pass/Workshops.html

If you have any questions, please contact: Personalized Academic Success Services (PASS) at 760-750-6056 or atoya@csusm.edu.