FACULTY AFFAIRS COMMITTEE (FAC)
Meets: Mondays, 10:00 AM to 12:00 N
Kellogg 3010

The Faculty Affairs Committee shall address issues that affect faculty members and their ability to carry out their professional responsibilities. FAC shall have general oversight of personnel policies and procedures including those of compensation, retention, tenure, and promotion. The committee shall recommend changes in the Faculty Handbook and shall review and recommend the annual calendar of dates for retention, tenure, and promotion. The Faculty Affairs Committee recommends procedures and policies for equal opportunity, retirement, leaves of absence, and sabbatical or special leaves. The Faculty Affairs Committee shall propose policy regarding faculty development in the areas of teaching, research/creative activity, and service. Furthermore, the committee makes recommendations to the office of the Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs concerning all of these issues. The committee shall propose policy and provide procedures for resolution of faculty disciplinary issues and issues of academic freedom and workload. The committee shall work in consultation with CSUSM-CFA, the university administration, and other appropriate bodies. In pursuit of these duties, the committee may create ad hoc subcommittees.

Technology Policy & Advisory Committee

Meets: Every other Monday
Time: 1:00 - 2:30 PM
Location: KELLOGG 3010

The Technology Policy and Advisory Committee shall include: 1) Drafting policies under the jurisdiction of the Academic Senate as they relate to the academic uses of information technology. 2) Coordinating with other standing and special committees in formulating, reviewing, and recommending all policies and procedures related to the academic uses of information technology. 3) Advising the Academic Senate and other members of the university community involved in planning, development, implementation and application of technology campus-wide, and assisting in the communication and collaboration between, and among various constituencies and communities of technology users. Examples may include, but are not limited to, issues that emerge from the use of technology to support teaching and learning, research, faculty professional development, online instruction, accessibility, copyright, software licensing, the generation and use of electronic databases, email, systems and servers, networks and network security, the campus wireless environment, and emerging technologies. 4) Preparing an annual report on the state of technology, online instruction at CSUSM, and relevant emerging technologies and trends. This report should be 2-5 pages and may be based on, among other sources, a survey of faculty, information from Academic Programs, and college and campus strategic planning documents. This report is not a substitute for a year-end report to the Senate. In pursuit of these duties, the committee may create ad hoc subcommittees.
