Ladies and Gentlemen:

The Supreme Court Fellows Commission is accepting applications for the 2005-2006 Supreme Court Fellows Program. The Program seeks outstanding individuals from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds who are interested in the administration of justice and making a contribution to the judiciary.

Candidates must have at least one postgraduate degree, two or more years of professional experience with a record of high performance, and multidisciplinary training and experience, including familiarity with the judicial process. Enclosed are several copies of the 2005-2006 brochure explaining the Program. We would appreciate your making the information available to any individuals you believe are well-qualified.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,
