SCHOOL OF EDUCATION MISSION & VISION STATEMENT

(Adopted by SOE Governance Community, January 2013)

Vision

To serve the educational needs of local, regional, and global communities, the School of Education advances innovative practice and leadership by generating, embracing, and promoting equitable and creative solutions.

Mission

The mission of the School of Education community is to collaboratively transform education. We:

- Create community through partnerships
- Promote and foster social justice and educational equity
- Advance innovative, student-centered practices
- Inspire reflective teaching and learning
- Conduct purposeful research
- Serve the School, College, University, and Community

Basic Tenets of our Conceptual Framework

- Student centered education
- Research and theory specific to the program field inform practice
- Connections and links between coursework and application
- Strong engagement between faculty and candidates
- Co-teaching clinical practice
- Culturally responsive pedagogy and socially just outcomes

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Develops the skill and knowledge to complete and defend a five-chapter research thesis. The combined EDAD 698 A, B, and C classes are equivalent to EDUC 698. Restricted to Ed Admin students. May be repeated for credit up to 2 times. Third in a 3-course sequence of master's thesis writing.

Course Objectives

Complete, defend, and submit and electronic five chapter research thesis

Student Learning Outcomes (SLO)

By the end of the course candidates will be able to:

1. Understand the expectations to complete the five-chapter thesis under advisement of a committee chair and one additional committee member.
2. Prepare and present the thesis components to faculty, peers, and colleagues for discussion in a defense.
3. Understand and implement the requirements of a thesis that is presented to the digital platform Scholarworks for worldwide access.
4. Reflect on the process through participating in an exit interview.

Program Student Learning Outcomes (PSLO)

Students graduating with a Master of Arts in Educational Administration will master the following outcomes:

1. Explain how school plans, programs, and activities support the school's vision to advance the academic, linguistic, cultural, aesthetic, social-emotional, behavioral, and physical development of each student.
2. Recognize discriminatory practices, signs of trauma, manifestations of mental illness, and promote culturally responsive, positive and restorative strategies to address diverse student and school needs.
3. Use principles of positive behavior interventions, conflict resolution, and restorative justice and explain to staff and community members how these approaches support academic achievement, safety, and well-being for all students.
4. Engage family and community members in accomplishing the school's vision of equitable schooling and continuous improvement that includes the academic, linguistic, cultural, social-emotional, mental and physical health, and/or other supports needed to succeed in school.
5. Recognize any possible institutional barriers to student and staff learning and use strategies that overcome barriers that derive from economic, social-emotional, racial, linguistic, cultural, physical, gender, gender identify, sexual orientation, or other sources of educational disadvantage or discrimination.
6. Understand and analyze governance and policy systems and use this knowledge to explain roles and relationships of school and district administrators, local state boards of education, and the legislature to staff and the school community.
7. Analyze current research literature and explain how findings can be applied in a practical educational setting.

Required Texts

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

School of Education Attendance Policy

Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the School of Education, all candidates are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. This research based class is moved outside the confines of a classroom and includes a face to face orientation, research time in the library or online, electronic and face to face meetings with the chair and committee members, and engaging with the community to collect and interpret data. Writing, getting feedback, and editing is a large part of the assigned work. Individual instructors may adopt more stringent attendance requirements. Should the candidate have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible. (Adopted by the COE Governance Community, December, 1997).

Students with Disabilities Requiring Reasonable Accommodations

Candidates with disabilities who require reasonable accommodations must be approved for services by providing appropriate and recent documentation to the Office of Disable Student Services (DSS). This office is located in Craven Hall 4300, and can be contacted by phone at (760) 750-4905, or TTY (760) 750-4909. Candidates authorized by DSS to receive reasonable accommodations should meet with their instructor during office hours or, in order to ensure confidentiality, in a more private setting.

Graduate Writing Requirements

The California State University maintains a Graduation Writing Assessment Requirement (GWAR) for master's students, to be completed before Advancement to Candidacy can be approved. A student may satisfy the graduate writing requirement in one of two ways: an acceptable standardized test score, or a paper that receives a passing score as described in the GWAR rubric. Toward the goal of providing opportunity for graduate students in the School of Education to satisfy the writing requirement, all papers in all graduate classes must adhere to the rules of style (for writing and format style) detailed in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th ed. (2009). This is a required textbook for all CSUSM School of Education graduate courses.

CSUSM Academic Honesty Policy

"Students will be expected to adhere to standards of academic honesty and integrity, as outlined in the Student Academic Honesty Policy. All written work and oral presentation assignments must be original work. All ideas/materials that are borrowed from other sources must have appropriate references to the original sources. Any quoted material should give credit to the source and be punctuated with quotation marks.

Students are responsible for honest completion of their work including examinations. There will be no tolerance for infractions. If you believe there has been an infraction by someone in the class, please bring it to the instructor's attention. The instructor reserves the right to discipline any student for academic dishonesty in accordance with the general rules and regulations of the university. Disciplinary action may include the lowering of grades and/or the assignment of a failing grade for an exam, assignment, or the class as a whole."

Incidents of Academic Dishonesty will be reported to the Dean of Students. Sanctions at the University level may include suspension or expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism:

As an educator, it is expected that each candidate will do his/her own work, and contribute equally to group projects and processes. Plagiarism or cheating is unacceptable under any circumstances. If you are in doubt about whether your work is paraphrased or plagiarized see the Plagiarism Prevention for Students website <http://library.csusm.edu/plagiarism/index.html>. If there are questions about academic honesty, please consult the University catalog.

Use of Technology

Candidates are expected to demonstrate competency in the use of various forms of technology (i.e. word processing, electronic mail, Moodle, use of the Internet, and/or multimedia presentations). Specific requirements for course assignments with regard to technology are at the discretion of the instructor. Keep a digital copy of all assignments for use in your teaching portfolio. All assignments will be submitted online, and some will be submitted in hard copy as well. Details will be given in class.

Electronic Communication Protocol

Electronic correspondence is a part of your professional interactions. If you need to contact the instructor, e-mail is often the easiest way to do so. It is my intention to respond to all received e-mails in a timely manner. Please be reminded that e-mail and on-line discussions are a very specific form of communication, with their own nuances and etiquette. For instance, electronic messages sent in all upper case (or lower case) letters, major typos, or slang, often communicate more than the sender originally intended. With that said, please be mindful of all e-mail and on-line discussion messages you send to your colleagues, to faculty members in the School of Education, or to persons within the greater educational community. All electronic messages should be crafted with professionalism and care.

Things to consider:

- Would I say in person what this electronic message specifically says?
- How could this message be misconstrued?
- Does this message represent my highest self?
- Am I sending this electronic message to avoid a face-to-face conversation?

In addition, if there is ever a concern with an electronic message sent to you, please talk with the author in person in order to correct any confusion.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Below is a Gantt Chart of the tasks you will complete and dates to benchmark for each week of the semester. You will move through the timeline at your own pace.

The task leads to milestones, which are:

- Submitting draft chapters 1-5,
- Completing the additional pages in the thesis including the title page, abstract, table of contents, appendix (if needed), and references,
- Developing and presenting a power point to “defend” the thesis with your committee members and others,
- Ensuring the thesis is APA formatted and ADA compliant,
- Participating in an online exit interview with an assigned CSUSM School of Education program coordinator or director,
- Completing and submitted documents to student services including the library fees receipt and the two library forms,
- Successfully submitting the thesis to ScholarWorks no later than _____.

Activities and timeline:

The following Gantt Chart paces the assignments through the 8 week module.

	Module 1	Module 2	Module 3	Module 4	Module 5	Module 6	Module 7	Module 8
Draft of Chapters 1-5 revisions	X	X	X	X
Create title page from library signature page			X
Write an abstract and add key words for referencing in ScholarWorks			X
Paginate the thesis and create table of contents				X
Add an appendix if needed for extra data, sample survey, etc.				X
Check and edit thesis references for APA and ADA formatting				X	X
Make appointment for exit interview with assigned program coordinator					X
Submit completed thesis for review					X
Submit thesis						X

presentation/defense power point to chair
Present thesis PowerPoint through Zoom with committee							X
Make final edits from defense suggestions					X
Get signatures on title page and library form						X	X
Submit final thesis to Scholar Works								X
Submit Scholar Works version of thesis in Cougar Courses								X

Grading Policy

The research seminar class is graded Pass/No pass. Successful (as determined by committee chair) completion of the Gantt Chart activities results in a passing grade.
