6. Catalog Description: Explores Black Feminist consciousness and activism along with its impact, historically and theoretically. Focuses on the principles and practices associated with its evolution through struggle over time in the U.S. and the Diaspora, the relationship of Black Feminist theorizing with other feminisms, and resistance and applications for social change. Explores key scholarly debates about self and community, the "multiplicity of oppressions," and the intersection of race with gender, class, sexuality, and nation. May not be taken for credit by students who have received credit for WMST 300-2.	Catalog Description: (Not to exceed 80 words; language should conform to catalog copy. Please consult the catalog for models of style and format; include all necessary information regarding consent for enrollment, pre- and/or corequisites, repeated enrollment, crosslisting, as detailed below. Such information does not count toward the 80-word limit.) Explores Black Feminist consciousness and activism along with its impact, historically and theoretically.
