College of Education Mission Statement

The mission of the College of Education Community is to collaboratively transform public education by preparing thoughtful educators advancing professional practices. We are committed to diversity, educational equity, and social justice, exemplified through reflective teaching, life-long learning, innovative research and on-going service. Our practices demonstrate a commitment to student-centered education, diversity, collaboration, professionalism, and shared governance.
(Adopted by COE Governance Community, October, 1997).

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Essential Elements of Adult Learning Theory prepares instructors to design lessons, deliver content, and assess student outcomes for adult learners. Introduces the student to theories of adult learning and motivation, use of evidence based assessment, and characteristics of effective instruction. It is a companion course to EDST 633E - Designing Online Experiences for Teaching and Learning.

Preparation of Clinical Nursing Faculty Certificate: This course is part of the Online Preparation of Clinical Nursing Faculty Certificate program. The certificate program is designed to prepare nurses in clinical practice for clinical nursing faculty positions. The program consists of 12 semester units, 10 units of online study and 2 units of fieldwork, and upon completion students will be issued a certificate from the University. Contact Extended Studies for more information: Carol Riaski, Academic Advisor Extended Learning, email: crriaski@csusm.edu phone: 760-750-8719

Required Texts and Materials:

Email Account – You are provided a campus email account automatically after you are registered for the semester. The log in is the same as WebCT.

Computer Access – you must have a computer available throughout the course with ability to access online audio clips and videos.

You must have Microsoft Office software suite including Word, Excel and PowerPoint. Please review the following page for plugin: http://courses.csusm.edu/studemo/tutorials/tips_tricks/plugins.htm

Expected learning outcomes:

1. Understand the nature and use of curriculum
3. Use a variety of teaching strategies appropriate to learner needs, desired instructional outcomes, content, and context.
4. Use evidence based assessment to determine if learner outcomes have been met.
5. Recognize and accommodate multicultural, gender, and experiential influences on teaching and learning.
6. Exhibit skilled oral and written communication.
7. Demonstrate knowledge of curriculum design/development, evaluation of program outcomes and continuous program improvement processes.
8. Demonstrate characteristics of effective teaching.

COE Attendance Policy

Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the College of Education, all students are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. At a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor. Individual instructors may adopt more stringent attendance requirements. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible.

In this online course, the instructor has adopted this policy: you must be active in online coursework including email, discussions and activities regularly (at least twice weekly and/or at least every 3 days), or you cannot receive a grade of A or A-; if you are inactive for one week or more, you cannot receive a grade of B+ or B. If you have extenuating circumstances, you should contact the instructor as soon as possible. Modules begin on Wednesday each week and end on Tuesday of the following week (see online schedule of modules).

Environment Conducive to Academic Success

In order to provide an environment conducive to the academic success of all students, CSUSM has a formal policy regarding harassment. The policy states that conduct considered to be harassing in nature “has the purpose or effect of having a negative impact upon the individual’s work performance or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work or educational environment. Under most circumstances, harassment refers to the type of conduct that is pervasive, repetitive, and that is sufficiently severe to alter the conditions of an employee’s employment or a student’s education or employment. It also may refer to a single incident that is sufficiently outrageous or harmful, in and of itself, that it substantially alters the conditions of an employee’s employment or interferes with that individual’s ability to perform job related responsibilities.

CSUSM College of Education Expectations and Accommodation Services

Mission of the College of Education at CSUSM: The mission of the College of Education Community is to transform public education by preparing thoughtful educators advancing professional practice. We are committed to the democratic principles of educational equity and social justice for all learners, exemplified through reflective teaching, learning and service. We value diversity, collaboration, professionalism and shared governance.

Students with Disabilities Requiring Reasonable Accommodations: Students are approved for services through the Disabled Student Services Office (DSS). This office is located in Craven Hall 5205, and can be contacted by phone at (760) 750-4905, or TTY (760) 750-4909. Students authorized by DSS to receive reasonable accommodations should meet with their instructor.

Important Course Requirements and Considerations

<tr>
<th>Discussion Posting (Value Added Model)</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>When replying to a posting in the discussion area or through a Web Blog, you must refer to the person by name and refer to their comments within your posting.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

To Add Value, your response must do one of the following:

- give an example of what the prior post had described;
- provide a different perspective of the topic posted; and/or
- expand upon the idea posted in the message by including more detail and depth.

The instructor will provide feedback to support understanding of this concept. Peers may be asked to review how others conform to this aspect of the course discussions.

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>It is expected that all students will have an active presence in the online community (see attendance policy). Organize each week so that you visit the WebCT shell every 2-3 days. This will provide you the opportunity to stay in touch with the module assignments and discussions.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
You will need to use an up-to-date computer and operating system that has the ability and speed to use WebCT and participate in activities, as well as play sound files and movie clips. It is your responsibility to check these capabilities out as soon as you begin the course and have a plan for completing and accessing these resources regularly.

Note that assignment documents must be completed in Microsoft Office (Word, PowerPoint and/or Excel). There is a Browser Check on WebCT to use to test your browser and access (see link in WebCT).

Assignment Questions

There is a Questions topic section in the discussion area of WebCT. This section is an online community gathering place where all students have the benefit of access to instructor responses to questions about the course, activities, and/or assignments. Please review the posted questions before posting your question(s). Instructor will respond to posts within 48 hours. If you do not have a response by 48 hours, please contact the instructor directly by email or phone. Students may also respond to questions when they have information that will help other students.

Tips for Success

- Assignments are due when noted on the assignment page. Abide by them.
- All assignments should be based on thoughtful reflection, and submitted only after final edits, proof-read and word-processed. The university has a 2500-word writing requirement for each course that is met through the course reflections, assignments and discussions. Use Microsoft Word for any Word Processed documents, but post directly to discussion instead of posting a file.
- Contact instructor in advance of any extended absence to accessing and contributing to module activities. If you contact the instructor about an absence, suggest a timeline for how you will make up missed sessions, contribute to group work, and if there is a need for an alternative assignment.
- Grading of coursework will be based on adherence to the assignment guidelines, evidence of application of course readings and resources, and clear evidence of specified revisions, clarity, and coherence, in revised work. Points are deducted for spelling and/or grammar errors.
- Remember to cite all information obtained from others completely in APA 5th Edition format. References are required. You can find assistance on citation rules at http://library.csusm.edu/plagiarism/.

Working in groups, students will develop a videoconferencing activity to be presented to other nurse educators to teach a concept. This activity may be related to the online module development in assignment #3. Students will provide a written analysis of the adult learning and motivation theory content used in designing the activity.

An online module will be developed based on an identified expertise related to nursing and medicine. The online module will include instruction, online interactive tasks, discussions, and assessment. Students will provide a written analysis of the adult learning and motivation theory content used in designing the module.

Students will provide a written analysis of the adult learning and motivation theory content used in designing the module.

Students will design an online assessment related to the online module in assignment #3. Students will provide a written analysis of assessment best practices used in the module.

Students will reflect on becoming an educator of adults using a journal shared with the instructor. Reflections are based on readings and course activities.

Students are active participants in course discussions and activities online. The use of electronic communication in WebCT is required for class activities.

Attendance (through online presence), participation, and timely access to online activities are critical to success in this course. Value Added postings are required.

| TOTAL POINTS | 100 |

All assignments, requirements, due dates, and scoring rubrics will be available through WebCT. Students should check the course schedule and assignment sections regularly for updates.

Assessment

In order to successfully complete this course, assignments must be completed with at least an acceptable level noted on assignment rubrics. In addition to the assignments described above, performance assessment will be on student's ability to perform tasks using a variety of online tools. California State University San Marcos has adopted an all-university writing requirement. In each course, students are required to write at least 2500 words in essays, exercises, papers, and examinations. The chart below gives the translation of points into grades.

| 94 - 100 = A | 80 - 83 = B- | 70 - 73 = C- |
| 90 - 93 = A- | 77 - 79 = C+ | 60 - 69 = D |
| 87 - 89 = B+ | 74 - 76 = C | below 60 = F |
