07 Discussion	Review of ASI Elections Committee Description: Review duties and responsibilities of ASI Elections Committee as stated in the ASI Bylaws Fiscal Impact: None Bylaws can be found on ASI website. Presenter reviewed ASI Bylaws including meetings and standing committees. Presenters highlighted that when elections campaigning is taking place the committee members should prepare for emergency meetings. Ashley recommended putting time on the calendar ahead of time for the committee to meet. Presenters also reviewed committee make-up as well as duties and responsibilities. The main role is to guide election process including creating guidelines to oversight of campaigning. Jason highlighted the recommendations in the May 2019 elections committee minutes. Committee should consider addition of trainings prior to election's cycle commencing. Chair will look into trainings regarding bias and diversity.	Ashley Fennell Assistant Director of Government Affairs & Initiatives  Annie Macias Associate Executive Director
08 Discussion	Review of Elections Guidelines and Procedures Description: Discussion regarding changes made to Elections Code 500. Fiscal Impact: None	Ashley Fennell Associate Director of Government Affairs & Initiatives  Annie Macias

	See attached for document reviewed. Discussion focused on difference between ASI Bylaws and the election guidelines and procedures. Presenter highlighted changes recommended by last year's committee. This document guides the entire elections process. The committee should be familiar with this document. Chair will identify a time for a working information session to review this document. This document will be sent to the committee for additional edits; it needs to be approved as soon as possible in order to update website and creation elections application.	Executive Director
09 Discussion	Elections Timeline Description: Committee will review and approve timeline for 2020 ASI Elections cycle Fiscal Impact: None Committee brainstormed timeline for elections. Per the ASI Bylaws, the elections must take place the week prior to spring break, which takes place March 30- April 5. The first day of the spring 2020 semester starts Tuesday, January 21st. They tentatively agreed to open applications on February 10th and close on the 26th. They did not recommend a week between candidate meeting and campaigning; they thought it would cause confusion and would leave room for complaints. Tentatively, candidate meeting will take place the week of March 2nd and campaigning would take place starting the 9th- conclusion of voting. They mentioned having town hall events that would combine coffee with the candidate and meet the candidates. They wanted to combine formal and informal time with the candidates. They recommended candidates sign up for one or the other as well as either live stream or film to increase accessibility. They also wanted to host a few information session with updated PowerPoints to include additional information about positions. They thought it would be helpful to host elections workshops. Chair will bring proposal for ASI elections to the next committee meeting.	Ashley Fennell Associate Director of Government Affairs &amp; Initiatives
10 Discussion	Marketing, Promotions, and Budget for ASI Elections Description: Discussion on efforts to increase participation in ASI elections within allocated budget Fiscal Impact: None Discussion focused on an application promotion video. They also brainstormed about social media posts, classroom presentations, presentations to student organizations, and presentation to campus entities/departments. The budget for marketing and promotions is $1000- this includes 2 mandatory ads in the Cougar Chronicle. Additional discussion focused on a station for "I voted" stickers during voting, a theme for the elections cycle, and a possible media campaign that could focus on a "countdown" to application opening. They also mentioned updating the candidate information session to include overview of permitted activities versus not permitted, clearer guidelines with increase in overview, and encouragement of a clean, fun campaign.	Ashley Fennell Associate Director of Government Affairs &amp; Initiatives

ASI Elections Guidelines and Procedures

These guidelines and procedures shall be established by the authority given in the Bylaws of Associated Students, Incorporated of California State University San Marcos.

I. TYPE OF ELECTION

- A. General Election: A regularly scheduled election for all Associated Students, Inc. elective positions. Special issues, such as a fee referendum or amendments to the ASI Bylaws, may also be included in the general election. The general election is held annually during the spring term the week prior to spring break. If students are not in session due to university closure, alternate dates for the general election shall be determined by the ASI Elections Committee.
- B. Special Election: An election called to determine special issues, including but not limited to fee referendum, recall elections, amendments to Bylaws, or to fill a vacancy of office. A special election may be called at the discretion of the ASI Board of Directors.
- C. Run-off election: Follows a general or special election when a tie (equal votes) exists between candidates, or a tie regarding special issues. Run-off elections shall be held the second or third week after a general or special election.

II. REGULATION OF ASI ELECTIONS

- A. The ASI Elections Committee is governed by the ASI Bylaws. The ASI Elections Committee has authority to oversee the Elections process and complaints received. Specifics regarding the ASI Elections Committee are stated in ASI Bylaws.
- B. The ASI Elections Committee is required to follow the CA Education Code, which states, "The election shall be called by posting notices in three public places on the campus at least two weeks before the election and by publishing the notice once a week for two weeks in the campus newspaper published by the student body organization, if there be such a newspaper. The notice shall set forth the time and place of the election, the purpose of the election, the location of the polls, and the hours during which the polls will be open." The posting shall also take place online and in campus announcements
- C. ASI Elections shall take place the week prior to the University Spring Break.
- D. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of the ASI Bylaws and any Policy or Procedures; the ASI Bylaws shall take precedence.
- E. The following positions shall be elected in the general election of the student body:
  - 1. ASI President (1)
  - 2. ASI Executive Vice President (1)
  - 3. ASI Vice President of Student & University Affairs (1)
  - 4. ASI Chair & Chief of Staff (1)
  - 5. Representatives from each of the academic colleges. College senators shall be elected from those majoring in one of the various departments of the particular college. (10)
  - 6. ASI Student at Large for Diversity & Inclusion (2+)
  - 7. ASI Student at Large for Sustainability (1)

- F. The ASI Elections Committee is responsible for promoting elections and outreach to the campus community to encourage voter turnout. ASI Elections marketing material will be prepared by ASI Media and Communications Team.
- G. The ballot will contain pre-approved names running for each particular office with a space provided for a write-in candidate.
- H. The person receiving the most votes from such ballots will be deemed the winner.
- I. Candidates running unopposed must receive 10% of those students who cast votes in ASI election year to be deemed winner of that position.
- J. The final result will be provided by the ASI Elections Committee the day after the last election date, provided there are no pending outstanding investigations.
- K. Executive Officers, ASI Board of Directors Representatives, and ASI Student Employees may endorse candidates as students themselves and not as members of ASI, at their own discretion.
- L. No member of ASI Elections Committee shall be a candidate for any elective office appearing on the ballot or engage in any activity promoting campaigning for or against any candidate.
- M. The ASI Elections Committee Chair will be authorized to confirm all election results after the closing of the polls. The vote counting process will be held under the direct supervision of the advisors to the ASI Elections Committee. ASI Elections results will then be approved by the ASI Elections Committee prior to the announcement of winners.

III. VOTERS ELIGIBILITY

- A. All matriculated students who pay the ASI student body fee at California State University San Marcos are eligible to vote during general, special, and run-off elections.
- B. No proxy voting will be permitted during general, special, and run-off elections. Students may be asked to give their student identification number.
- C. Students will vote for representative candidates of their college, student-at-large representatives, special officers, and executive officers.
