01.

Understanding SPF

Definition of SPF

The Sustainability Projects Funding (SPF) at CSUSM, managed by ASI's Sustainability Projects Funding Committee, provides approximately $10,000 annually to support educational initiatives that advance the university's sustainability goals and reduce its environmental impact.

Different Types of Sustainability

Environmental Sustainability:

Protecting Earth's ecosystems and resources supports life; we can help by conserving, reducing waste, and supporting sustainable practices.

Social Sustainability:

Promoting education and equity ensures that everyone has access to basic needs and opportunities.

Economic Sustainability:

Encouraging sustainable economic growth that protects the environment and supports societal well-being.

02.

How to Apply?

How and When to Apply

November 27th: Applications close at 5:00pm

December 9th: SPF Committee Deliberations & Presentations

03.

What Can BOD Do?

Spread Awareness!

- Members of the BOD could actively share information about SPF through their personal networks and encourage students from different departments and organizations to apply.

Thanks

Working on creating a taskforce, will be reaching out to multiple campus partners to see how they can support and finalizing the taskforce's mission On Nov 5th I posted a memo on our ASI social media and website titled Advocating for Inclusive and Welcoming Language and it was a way to ensure students that we are here to advocate and work on behalf of them when they feel targeted on campus. And how we as a community can work together to be more welcoming and inclusive to each other, especially through this election period.
