

CSUSM College of Humanities, Arts, and Behavioral and Social Sciences
CHABSS Diversity Working Group (CDWG)
APPLICATION FOR CDWG STUDENT MEMBERSHIP
Fall 2016 – Spring 2017

The CHABSS Diversity Working Group (CDWG) seeks two student members to serve in Fall 2016 and Spring 2017, joining CHABSS faculty and staff to help fulfill the CHABSS Strategic Goals to preserve, promote, and improve diversity in our college and on our campus.

Student members must be available to attend CDWG meetings (dates and times to be determined). The committee plans to meet twice per month, and the time commitment for student members would be about 4-6 hours per month.

The CHABSS Diversity Working Group will develop a college-wide response to the CSUSM 2014 Diversity Mapping Report's projections of needed next steps. The CDWG is charged with finding and implementing ways to promote diversity within CHABSS. These will include developing, implementing, and promoting strategies to

- improve and sustain diversity in the classroom and the curriculum
- hire and retain diverse faculty, staff, and administrators,
- strengthen existing collaborations across the CSUSM campus
- create a signature event for Spring 2017

Please provide written responses to the following. You may use the back of this application, and/or submit (a) separate sheet(s).

1. What does “diversity” mean to you, and why is it important?
2. Please tell us about any experience(s) you might have involving the promotion of diversity.
3. What do you think are three of the most important diversity-related issues on our campus?
4. Besides improving the diversity of faculty, staff, and administrators, what do you think CSUSM faculty, staff, students, and/or administrators could do to improve diversity on our campus?
