

The CSUSM Center for Leadership Innovation and Mentorship Building (CLIMB) presents

LEADING IN A MULTI-GENERATIONAL WORKPLACE

Sponsored by

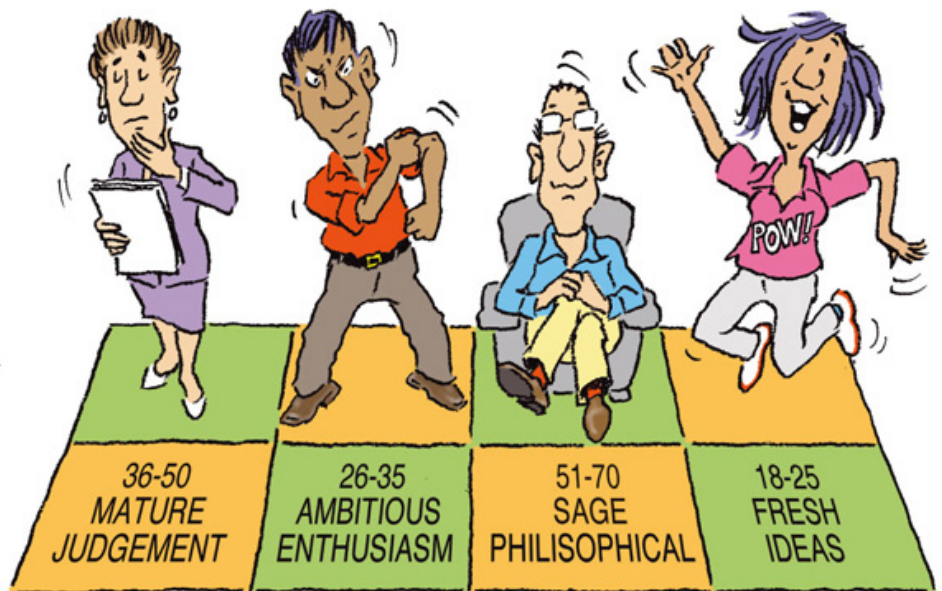

Welk
RESORTS

How do we as leaders create workplaces that empower all generations of employees to contribute, collaborate, and deliver results? Today's diverse workforce includes four distinct generations:

- Direct and formal Traditionalists
- Workaholic Baby Boomers
- Independent Generation Xers
- Collaborative, tech-savvy Millennials

Business leaders who understand the characteristics and motivations of these groups are able to increase productivity and foster effective work environments.
