

Ready to make your mark in journalism? Join the San Diego Voice & Viewpoint as an intern and help amplify the voices of ethnic communities while gaining real, hands-on newsroom experience. From local stories to global issues, you'll create impactful articles and videos that matter.

About SDVV:

For more than six decades, The San Diego Voice & Viewpoint has faithfully reported news to the diverse communities of San Diego County from an African-American perspective. From small church gatherings to major political campaigns, as San Diego's largest African-American publication, our news features have highlighted people and events in a comprehensive manner, while commentators have argued from different points of view in the lively op-ed pages. The Voice & Viewpoint has grown over the years to cover over 350 newsstands and outlets. Our publication can be found in 89 zip codes of San Diego and has a print readership of over 15,000 weekly.

Internship: Content Creator/Journalism internship position for the San Diego Voice & Viewpoint. Internship is for 3 credit hours only and requires enrollment in UNIV 495 or PSCI 494b.

Start date: Spring Semester of 2027,

What You'll Do:

- Cover local, state, and national news, plus historical, educational, and community-driven stories.
- Collaborate on creative marketing and design projects (when needed).
- Work closely with our publisher and managing editor to refine your craft.
- Pitch and produce investigative and service journalism with a unique cultural lens.

Why You'll Love It:

- Dive into real-world journalism at a publication rooted in community impact.

- Work side-by-side with experienced editors who'll mentor you every step of the way.
- Create a standout portfolio filled with meaningful, published work.

What We're Looking For:

- Passionate storytellers with big ideas and a drive to learn.
- Students who can commit 8-12 hours a week (for college credits).
- Proactive, flexible team players who meet deadlines like pros.
- If you've got your own camera and reliable transportation, that's great!

Internship Requirements: SDVV welcomes students with varying skill levels and experience to apply. However, knowledge and experience in creating and producing news content, social media and marketing content is preferred (but not required), as well as knowledge of administrative office management tasks. The internship may either work alone or together with other interns and staff members based on interests, skill level, and organizational needs. Interns must be able to travel to SDVV facilities (at least once a week) as well as to potential locations of news events in San Diego County. Interns must be self-motivated, work well alone and with a team, have excellent written and oral communication skills.

How to Apply:

- Email a letter of interest that address the Internship Requirements above and comments on your ability to be successful at SDVV along with your resume/work experience and any relevant examples of your work to mdewey@csusm.edu
