Dear Students,

We know that this past month has brought so many profound and unexpected changes to the way you live, work and learn. The shift to virtual courses has transformed your spring 2020 CSUSM experience, and we commend you for your perseverance and resiliency. It hasn't been easy, but we are here to support your continued success at Cal State San Marcos.

Currently, we are in consultation with Associated Students, Inc. and Academic Senate to review various campus policies and make temporary decisions that will allow for flexibility and compassion, while also protecting CSUSM's academic integrity.

The policies under review include:

- Credit/No Credit grading
- Withdrawals
- Probation
- Disqualification

ASI welcomes your feedback at asi@csusm.edu.

We look forward to providing you an update later this month.

Enjoy the rest of your spring break.

Sincerely,

Dr. Ranjeeta Basu, Ph.D.

Interim Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs
