

Activism Resources for Students

Across the country and our world, students have historically been active in a variety of social, political, economic and environmental justice issues and movements. This page aims to serve as resource for students who would like to participate in activism of any kind.

Learning More About Activism and Advocacy

These articles may be helpful to learn how best to enact change.

- Ten Ways to Fight Hate: A Community Response Guide \(SPLC\)
- 10 Ways Youth Can Engage in Activism \(ADL\)
- Rights of Protesters \(ACLU\)
- Campus Free Speech \(PEN America\)
- Every Vote Counts \(Student-led, Nonpartisan Organization\)
- Your Right to Protest \(ACLU of San Diego & Imperial Counties\)
- How to Organize an Effective, Safe and Peaceful Protest \(Medium\)
- Before Giving to a Charity \(Federal Trade Information Consumer Information\)
- When Philanthropy Meets Advocacy \(Stanford Social Innovation Review\)

Campus Decision Making and Resources

Learning more about how decisions are made at CSUSM is an important aspect of advocacy. Below are a few links to resources on campus that may help you understand more about the inner workings and management of CSUSM.

- CSUSM Organization
- Academic Senate
- Associate Students, Inc.

CSUSM's Local Delegation and California Legislative Links

- Visit the CSUSM Office of Government Relations for a list with links to local officials and other related information.

Other CSUSM Resources

- Cougar Care Network
- Student Health and Counseling Services
- Office of University Ombuds
- Office of Inclusive Excellence
- University Police Department
- Student Life Centers for Identity, Inclusion and Empowerment
 - Black Student Center
 - Cross-Cultural Center
 - Gender Equity Center
 - Latin@/x Center
 - LBGTQA Pride Center