Giving Day

Tomorrow is your opportunity to support the Office of Inclusive Excellence. This is the best time to make an impact and donate to the Marilyn J. McWilliams Spirit of Inclusive Excellence Award. This award is meant to honor and reward students who have actively held the principles of diversity, equity, and inclusion in the community, classroom, and further. Your support will help establish an endowment that will provide financial assistance towards one's educational journey at California State University San Marcos. Be on the lookout on our social media for challenges that will be taking place throughout the day. Your participation makes a lasting impact, so please consider supporting our cause this Giving Day!
