

The Snake Dance of Asian American Activism: Community, Vision & Power

featuring

Dr. Kim Geron

Lecture & Book Signing

Thursday, March 11 @ 1:15 p.m. in Commons 206

followed by

Conversation about the importance & place of Ethnic Studies in the CSU

Thursday, March 11 @ 2:30 p.m. in Univ 373

Political Scientist and co-author Dr. Kim Geron (CSU East Bay) discusses his book, The Snake Dance of Asian American Activism: Community, Vision & Power. This pivotal research describes the Asian American movement's dramatic impact on the direction of Asian American political and social activity beginning in the 1960s. Following his presentation, Dr. Geron shares ideas about future directions for Ethnic Studies programs in the CSU system.

Sponsored by CSUSM Arts & Lectures and the Ethnic Studies Program. For more information about the event of Ethnic Studies, contact the Coordinators: Dr. Theresa Suarez (tsuarez@csusm.edu) or Dr. Michelle A. Holling (mholling@csusm.edu)

