

California State University
SAN MARCOS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RECEIPT OF
THE CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
NEPOTISM POLICY

I have read the California State University Nepotism Policy and certify that, no family member "...shall vote, make recommendations or in any way participate in decisions about any personnel matter which may directly affect the selection, appointment, evaluation, retention, tenure, compensation, promotion, termination, or other employment status or interest of an immediate family member." Should the need for a supervisory relationship arise, I understand that a plan must be submitted to the Provost for approval before an individual can be appointed to such a supervisory relationship. The CSU Nepotism Policy can be found online at <https://csyou.calstate.edu/Policies/HRPolicies/HR2004-18.pdf>
