A Message from Dr. Chun, Interim Medical Director, Student Health and Counseling Services

Happy September, Cougar family! Alas, uncertainty always seems to be around the corner. We entered the summer with so much hope that we were finally emerging from the COVID-19 pandemic, only to take several steps back with the emergence of the delta variant, a novel coronavirus strain that has shown to be more contagious and impacts more severely children, teens and young adults than earlier variants of the virus that causes COVID-19. Even more worrisome is the presence of breakthrough infections in some individuals who have been fully vaccinated for COVID-19. Read more

Director's Note

It was wonderful to meet many of you in person during New Student & Family Convocation and move-in. I am loving the energy – let's keep the momentum of family support year-round! Join us for Family Weekend, Oct. 1-3: Connect with CSUSM, show your support to your Cougar, and explore San Marcos. Check out the schedule on our website and be sure to RSVP by Sept. 20 – space is limited and will fill fast!

Christiana Moen, director, New Student & Family Programs

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Cristhian Lezama-Ramos,
second year

Major: Marketing

Minor: Video/film production
