

The Faculty Center, Office of Inclusive Excellence and the Office of Service Learning & Civic Engagement invites you to join us for a

SUMMER BOOK CLUB

Discussions about the book will help us shift how we see our work in the classroom and at the university with students of color. We will spend time discussing the book along with how we can apply Dr. Love's abolitionist teaching in our own work.

The first 12 people to apply will receive a copy of the book.
