

Scholarship Opportunities for Undocumented AB 540 Students

Undocumented students are encouraged to apply for funding from outside organizations that offer scholarships to students without regard to their citizenship status.

For scholarships requesting a Social Security number, students should contact the organization and inquire if that is definitely required for applying. Students should also inquire if a Tax ID number can be substituted for a Social Security number. Students can obtain a Tax ID number from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

If US citizenship is indicated as a requirement, students should still contact the organization and inquire if that is truly required.

Additional Scholarship Opportunities for Undocumented AB 540 Students

Undocumented students are encouraged to apply for funding from outside organizations that offer scholarships to students without regard to their citizenship status.

MALDEF (The Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund) provides a comprehensive directory of scholarships open to or specifically designated for undocumented students. This information can be found on their web site at: http://www.maldef.org/assets/pdf/MALDEF_Scholarship_Resource_Guide.pdf (2011-2012 Edition). Please contact the agencies directly for more information regarding their programs.

The Latino College Dollars Directory, published by The Tomás Rivera Policy Institute, provides a comprehensive list of scholarships, many of which are open to undocumented students. This information can be found on their web site at: <http://www.latinocollegedollars.org/directory.htm>. Please contact the agencies directly for more information regarding their programs.

The Scholarship Directory (2012-13 Edition), courtesy of U.S. Congress Woman Lucille Roybal-Allard, provides a comprehensive list of scholarships, some of which are open to undocumented students. This directory can be found on their web site at: <http://roybal-allard.house.gov/uploadedfiles/2012-2013paying-for-college.pdf>.

The Davis-Putter Scholarship Fund provides need-based grants to students actively working for peace and justice. More detailed information can be found on their web site at: <http://www.davisputter.org/>

The Chicana/Latina Foundation, a non-profit in existence since 1977 offers scholarships annually. More detailed information can be found on their web site: <http://www.chicanalatina.org/scholarship.html>

College Track, a non-profit organization, pays tuition and meal plans for some undocumented students. Visit their web site at <http://www.collegetrack.org> for more information.

The Bay Area Gardeners Foundation, a non-profit founded in 2002, offers scholarships annually. More detailed information can be found on their web site at: <http://www.bagf.org/>.

Dream Scholarship Fund was founded by Korean American youth who have tirelessly campaigned the last five years for the passage of the DREAM Act. For more information refer to their web site: <http://nakasec.org/blog/2859>.

The East Bay College Fund is a community-based non-profit, offering scholarships annually. More detailed information can be found on their web site at: <http://www.eastbaycollegefund.org/>

The Educators for Fair Consideration (E4FC) offers low-income immigrant students, from the San Francisco Bay Area, scholarships to attend U.S. colleges. More detailed information can be found on their web site at: <http://www.e4fc.org/>.

SALEF, known as the Salvadorian American Leadership and Education Fund, awards a variety of scholarships specifically for Latino and Salvadorian American youth preparing to enroll into a college after high school. AB 540 students are eligible for the scholarship opportunities that range between $500-$2500. For more information can be found on their web site: http://www.salef.org/#!_programs.

The Association of Raza Educators Scholarship was established to assist graduating AB540 and undocumented students from low income families. The scholarship is specifically for LAUSD or surrounding Charter School students in Los Angeles. For more information refer to their web site at: <http://www.razaeducators.org>.

Loans

The lenders below offer student loans you may qualify for. This is not an endorsement for these loans and we urge you to carefully read terms and conditions before accepting any loans.

Parent Achiever Loan from Key Bank and Sallie Mae are designed to help parents and sponsors pay education expenses for students attending an undergraduate or graduation institution. The parent or sponsor must be a U.S. citizen.

GreenNote is an innovative new company that was built to help students obtain loans for education via social networking rather than through traditional lending methods. Their web site information is: <https://www.greennote.com>.

Additional information about financial aid and scholarships for undocumented students can be found at: <http://www.finaid.org/otheraid/undocumented.phtml>

Note: Although undocumented students may qualify for a tuition exemption under AB 540 legislation, UC, CSU, California Community Colleges cannot provide any federal funds to undocumented students. AB 540 eligible students should NOT submit a FAFSA application, instead submit the California Dream Act application to apply for California state-based financial aid.

California Dream Act is the new initiative in California to provide state and institutional funds for AB 540 eligible students. The initiative is identified by two separate laws; AB 130 allows for institutionally-based funds, and AB 131 provides access to Cal-Grants. For more information, visit the California Student Aid Commission web site: <http://www.csac.ca.gov/>. To submit a California Dream Act application (January 1 – March 2), visit: http://www.csac.ca.gov/dream_act.asp.
