Assembly Bill (AB) 205, known as the California Domestic Partner Rights and Responsibilities Act of 2003 (Act), was enacted on September 22, 2003 and became effective on January 1, 2005. The Act extends new rights, benefits and obligations to individuals in California Registered Domestic Partnerships. The provisions of the Act apply to state and institutional financial aid only, not to federal aid. Effective January 1, 2005, the Act extends the rights and duties of spouses to couples registered as domestic partners with the California Secretary of State ("Registered Domestic Partners").

Instructions:

1. Complete this form only if you are, or your custodial parent is, registered with the California Secretary of State as a domestic partner and you are applying for or receiving institutional aid from a California State University campus.
2. In addition to completing this form, you will need to submit a copy of the Declaration of Domestic Partnership Certificate or SEC/STATE LP/SF DP-1.

As of January 1, 2009 or later, are you registered with the California Secretary of State as a domestic partner? yes no

As of January 1, 2009 or later, is your parent registered with the California Secretary of State as a domestic partner? yes no

(If you are separated from your domestic partner, or your parent is separated from his or her partner, but have not filed a Notice of Termination of Domestic Partnership with the California's Secretary of State's Office, you do not need to complete this form.)

I/We certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California, that all information provided on this form and the referenced worksheets is true and correct.
