

MEMORANDUM

DATE: March 21, 2022
TO: Faculty & Staff
FROM: Cathy Baur Student Philanthropy Award Committee
SUBJECT: Call for nominations for Cathy Baur Student Philanthropy Award

We are initiating the nomination process for the Cathy Baur Student Philanthropy Award with this solicitation for nominations. The Cathy Baur Student Philanthropy Award is an annual award that bestows the highest level of recognition to a CSUSM student or student organization for significant achievements in advancing the culture of philanthropy at CSUSM. Nominations are requested from the campus community of individuals who might be considered for this honor.

Criteria required to be submitted to the Secretary to the CSUSM Foundation Board, Donna Day, for consideration:

- For your submission to be considered, please send your nominations to the Secretary to the CSUSM Foundation Board, Donna Day, dday@csusm.edu by noon on Monday, April 18, including the following information:
 - Prepared by the student nominee, no length requirement or limit: Campus involvement resume detailing campus activities and accomplishments that contribute to philanthropy as described in the selection criteria section below.
 - Prepared by the student nominee, no length requirement or limit: Personal statement regarding the significance of personal involvement in philanthropy.
 - Recommendation from CSUSM faculty or staff citing contributions made to philanthropy (no length requirement or limit).
 - All nominations must address criteria number 1 below. Although not required, nominations may also address criteria numbers 2-4. Awards will be based on a nominee's efforts and activities as a student while attending CSUSM.

Below are the selection criteria for the award. The full nomination process is located at:
