of the California State University San Marcos Foundation Board of Directors was called to order at 8:31 am by Mr. Jack Raymond, Chair of the Board.

I. Call to Order:
- Chair Raymond welcomed everyone to the meeting and congratulated everyone for successfully completing the university’s first comprehensive campaign by raising $55 million, $5 million over goal.
- Chair Raymond welcomed David Wilson and Kyle Casement, two new Foundation Board Directors. Mr. Wilson and Mr. Casement shared their brief bio with the Board.
- Chair Raymond shared the announcement that the fourth President of California State University San Marco will be Dr. Ellen J. Neufeldt.
- Chair Raymond asked the question of the quarter:
  o How have you engaged with the university since our last meeting?
- Prior to introducing President Haynes, Chair Raymond congratulated her for receiving the following awards:
  o Herb Klein Civic Leadership Award given by the San Diego Regional Economic Development Council
  o Neil Morgan Memorial Award for Lifetime Achievement given by LEAD San Diego Visionary Awards.
Chair Raymond shared that President Haynes is the only individual to ever receive both these prestigious awards in the same year.
II. President Haynes provided the following update:

- During the California State University Board of Trustees (BOT) meeting on the day prior, the BOT named Dr. Ellen J. Neufeldt to be the fourth CSUSM president. She will begin her service on Monday, July 1st.
- Provost Graham Oberem will be stepping down at the end of the academic year. Kamel Haddad, current vice provost, will serve as interim provost beginning July 1 while the university conducts a search for a provost.
- Budget:
  - A preliminary state budget was provided by the Governor's office which shows increasing strategic funding as well as 2 percent enrollment funding growth to the CSU with 3.5 percent to CSUSM.
  - The budget is also expected to fund compensation increases for union contracts.
- President thanked all Foundation Board Directors for their support in successfully completing the university's first comprehensive campaign and setting a benchmark of donor support and donor stewardship.
- Commencement will be held over three days this year. Honorary degrees will be awarded to:
  - T.J. Dixon (in memoriam) and James Nelson who created CSUSM's first outdoor public art – the statue of Cesare Chavez that has become an iconic campus landmark.
  - Ginger Shaw who is a renowned community organizer and legislative advocate who has long been devoted to ending human trafficking.
- The President shared the following awards and accolades:
  - The Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) awarded University Advancement with 11 awards of excellence, honoring our editorial writing, strategic fundraising campaigns, our exceptional design and our innovative use of technology.
  - CSUSM had 25 student-athletes named to the 2018 California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) Fall All-Academic Team. To qualify, student-athletes must be of at least sophomore standing, have a 3.3 cumulative grade-point average or better and have competed in a CCAA-sponsored sport during the fall season.
