II. President’s Remarks: President Neufeldt provided a campus update noting that this September marks the 30-year anniversary for CSUSM. She provided a welcome to interim Vice President of University Advancement, Tere Mendoza, and a fond farewell to Interim Executive Director, Neal Hoss who will be retiring at the end of December.

President Neufeldt also shared that at the start of fall semester 8% of classes were being offered on campus with remaining classes being held virtually. 250 students are living on campus in single rooms vs. the almost 2,000 typically housed. The campus is taking an active role in preventing the spread of Covid 19, sharing updates with the campus community via www.csusm.edu/csusmasone and is a host site for a county-operated, walk-up coronavirus testing at the Viasat Engineering Pavilion.

Campus has become a venue for the California Center for the Arts’ Drive-In Performing Arts Series. Jack Raymond challenged the Board to consider ways to leverage the numerous first-time visitors to campus.
President Neufeldt also shared that through her listening and learning tour she has identified several key priorities that will be the focus for fundraising efforts including:

- Social Justice and Equity: To ensure that diversity and inclusion is woven in to all that is accomplished at CSUSM, recruitment for a Chief Diversity Officer is underway. This person will report directly to the President.
- Student Success and Social Mobility: To ensure students are making progress toward graduation, staff is focusing more resources on first-year students and offering coaching throughout the student life cycle.
- Innovation: Work is underway to identify academic programs, that can emerge or grow in this type of environment, across disciplines and with external partners.
- Veterans: The University is continuing to build partnerships throughout the region to support our veteran population.
- Engineering: The University is continuing to build out the engineering program to increase access not just for CSUSM, but for the workforce of the region and state.

These priorities will help shape the next 30 years for the University and a strategic planning process will begin over the fall semester.

University Advancement staff will lead a one-day brainstorming meeting to collect ideas and will secure a recommendation from President Neufeldt. Those on the taskforce will also support the event by encouraging Board and constituent participation: purchase sponsorships, identify raise-the-paddle plants, fill “seats”. During the meeting the following Directors volunteered to support the taskforce: Sam Clarke, Emilie Hersh, Tony Jackson, Nathaniel Keifer-Wheals, Carleen Kreider and Barbara Mannino.

ACTION ITEM: Staff to initiate a one-day Virtual Fundraising Event Taskforce to brainstorm with Sam Clarke, Emilie Hersh, Tony Jackson, Nathaniel Keifer-Wheals, Carleen Kreider and Barbara Mannino.

VII. CSUSM Giving Day: Chair Jackson and Mr. Briner facilitated a flipped board room where homework was assigned for Directors to watch the CSUSM Giving Day video and come prepared to discuss:

1. How would you like to help thank our Giving Day donors?

2. Should we keep a 1:1 Match AND Frontline Matches OR pool together to create a single 1:1 Match?
   a. Keep Frontline Matches to build affinity with constituent groups. Offers advantage for personalized giving and connections. Funding areas should create well thought out assessment to showcase their needs for support. Is pre-load giving from constituents a possibility?

ACTION ITEM: Staff to determine if the new platform to be utilized on Giving Day can accept and hold gifts prior to December 1.

3. What can we do to ensure 100% Board Director participation?
   a. With an 83% participation rate for the 2019 Giving Day, Chair Jackson made a call for participation expecting 100% of philanthropic support on December 1st from each CSUSM Foundation Board Director. Directors are to share their intentions with Ms. Day prior to September 30, 2020.

ACTION ITEM: Directors to share Giving Day intentions with Ms. Day by September 30, 2020.

VIII. Student Update: Ms. Aragon shared that the Student Philanthropy Council (SPC) held its first virtual meeting on September 1st with 15 students, the largest club participation rate. The current council is making a concerted effort to engage with SPC alums to help in celebrating the 10th anniversary. During the October 6th meeting, Steve Wagner, Vice Chair of the Foundation Board and long-time supporter of SPC, will join the virtual meeting. Ms. Aragon concluded with a thank you to the Directors for their active discussion to support CSUSM Giving Day.
