88% Feel proud to be alumni

CSUSM alumni are prepared for lifelong learning...

63% of respondents have earned, are in the process of earning, and/or are planning to earn another degree, credential, or certificate.

98% Feel that their CSUSM experience enhanced their research skills

97% Feel that their CSUSM experience enhanced their critical thinking

CSUSM alumni put their educations to work...

Education 23%
Healthcare 16%
Business & Finance 12%

83% employed

64% of respondents indicated they were employed full-time and 19% said they were employed part-time. 17% were unemployed and actively seeking employment.

57% of employed respondents earn an annual salary of $31,000 or more. 26% reported making between $21,000 and $30,000 per year. 17% earn more than $70,000 per year.

A majority earn more than $30k/year

78% found employment within 6 months

Over half (51%) of employed respondents found their first job via their own job search, while an additional 23% secured their position through a friend or family contact and 10% continued with a role held prior to graduation.

41% Read articles about activities at CSUSM and/or plans for future expansion of the campus.

32% Returned to campus to visit with faculty or staff members.

17% Made use of the Career Center or their services.

16% Attended one or more events included in the CSUSM Arts & Lecture Series.

& CSUSM alumni stay engaged...

69% of respondents report at least some involvement with CSUSM since graduation, with 7% indicating they remain "very involved." Over two thirds say they think of themselves as part of a larger community of CSUSM graduates.

2015 ALUMNI SURVEY

In Spring 2015, we checked in with our 2013-14 graduates to see what they were up to, how they felt about their CSUSM experience, and whether they continue to be engaged with the university.

89% Would choose CSUSM again

72% Recommended CSUSM in the past year