

Careers in Spanish-Speaking Fields

Spring 2018 Speaker Series

Learn how to apply your Spanish hands-on in the fields of: Peace Corps, palliative care, nursing, health education, therapy/counseling, legal/business/health translation, and research.

Refreshments provided!

Bilingual Therapy and Counseling

February 14th, 4-5 PM, USU 3300

Learn about being a Spanish/English therapist and counselor, with our very own SHCS Counselor Lissa Lim, Ph.D.

Peace Corps Volunteering

February 26th, 4-5 PM, USU 3300

Learn about volunteering in the Peace Corps and ask questions from a past participant, our own Registrar Lisa Medina, MBA, MLIS.

Palliative Care and Nursing

February 16th, 12-12:50, USU 3300

Learn about being a Spanish-speaking Palliative Care Provider and In-Home Nurse, with CEHHS's Dan Weiss, DNP, RN, CHPN.

Translation

(Legal, Health & Business)

February 28th, 4-5 PM, USU 3300

Learn about being a translator in various fields, job opportunities, and skills needed, with CHABBS' María Gomez-Martin, Ph.D.

Children and Migrant Health Education

February 19th, 4-5 PM, USU 3300

Learn about helping Spanish-speaking K-12 students and migrants understand health-care topics and resources with CEHHS's Virgie Delgado, MSN Edu., PHN, DSD, RN.

Genealogy and Family History

March 14th, 4-5 PM, USU 3300

It's not about a fancy name; it's about stories! Learn about this field that brings the past to life, with avid genealogist and storyteller Registrar Lisa Medina, MBA, MLIS.

Location: USU 3300

Co-hosted by: Language Learning Center, Latin@ Center, and Modern Language Studies Department.