

Oral Communication – Slide Design

This workshop is designed to help attendees enhance their formal oral presentations. Emphasis is on applying principles of typography, color theory, and graphic design to create effective and professional visual aids. Tips for communicating with photographs, charts, and bullet points will also be discussed.