Are you interested in gaining research experience in psychology?

Apply to the CSUSM Psychological Science Undergraduate Research Summer Program

June 5th – July 28th

APPLICATIONS DUE: MARCH 23rd at 5:00pm

Description

• Paid eight week summer research program to gain research skills in psychological science
• Students will get hands-on research experience in active labs at CSUSM as well as professional development in the psychological sciences
• Students can work in one of six labs: comparative psychology, clinical health, child clinical, developmental, cultural psychobiology, behavioral neuroscience
• Six awards will be given

Eligibility:

• Non-graduating undergraduate at CSUSM or local community colleges
• Able to devote 40 hours per week for eight weeks in the summer
• Completion of Research Methods and Intro to Statistics courses
• Little or no experience in research beyond classroom activities

Application materials:

• Unofficial transcripts from all colleges attended
• Completed application form, including contact information for two references

Email all documents to: apasupre@csusm.edu

See CSUSM psychology website for more details