This application is an Adobe PDF file and has been formatted so that you may type directly into the file. We recommend you save the PDF file to your computer prior to filling out the application. Once you complete the supplemental application form, you will upload it in the Documents section of your Cal Apply account.

Personal Information

Application Name: Last _____ First _____

Email Address: _____

Part One – Experience

Volunteer, Community Service, and/or Leadership Experience

Provide information for a maximum of 3 experiences (outside of employment setting) or write N/A. (300 word limit)

Part Two – Lessons Learned

We want to give you a chance to showcase a unique aspect of yourself. Objects and events can tell us something about our past or change the trajectory of our future. Tell us about an object or event that has special meaning to you and reflect on how that object or event has taught you a specific lesson in your life. Explain the lesson learned and reflect on the ways in which this has impacted you. How will learning this in the past make you an outstanding graduate student in the future? The object or event you should must be something outside of academics/classroom/speech-language pathology. Please only choose one object OR event. (450 word limit)

Part Three – Written Prompt

What does cultural responsiveness mean to you? Describe how you will demonstrate cultural responsiveness in your clinical interactions. (450 word limit)

Part Four – Video Prompt

You will be uploading one (1) Personal Video as part of this supplemental application. Your video is to be a maximum of two (2) minutes in length. Once you have prepared your response, follow the instructions to record the video and upload to YouTube using Option 1 or 2. Responses should be natural and not recited or read.

Record/Upload Option 1 - Using your cell phone and YouTube: Use the recording software on your cell phone to record your response. When finished, you will upload this file to YouTube. Make sure the setting on YouTube enables the video to be viewed by others (i.e., make sure the URL is accessible). Please account for the amount of time that it will take to upload the video. Check the recording to make sure it is working before submitting.

Record/Upload Option 2 - Using Zoom and YouTube: This method requires both a webcam/microphone and a YouTube account. Create a free Zoom account here: <https://www.zoom.us>. Click on "Host a Meeting - With Video on." Then click "Join Audio by Computer." Before you start, be sure the microphone and video are both working in the lower left corner of the Zoom program. When you are ready, click "Record," and end by clicking "Stop Recording." You will then click "End Meeting for All." Your recording will automatically be saved on your computer. Locate the file titled "zoom_0." You will upload this file to YouTube. The same caution applies with respect to the amount of time needed to upload.

Video Prompt

As the Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology is a degree that leads to certification, licensure and credentialing as a professional practitioner, we are held to a Code of Ethics and professional practice standards. What does professionalism mean to you and provide one professional trait that you exhibit, including a real-life example.

Part Five – Language Survey

Do you speak a language or languages other than English? If you do speak another language(s), when did you acquire the language(s) (e.g., birth; school)? How do you use the language(s) and in what settings? What is your most recent exposure to the language(s)? Put N/A if not applicable. (450 word limit)

Part Six – Course Repeat Rationale

If you have retaken any courses in your SLP/CSD education due to grades, please include a personal statement with the following:

1) Begin with providing a list (or table) in bullet form that includes the course abbreviation and title with the semester/year of attendance and grade for each attempt of that course (you should do this for every SLP/CSD course you repeated); and 2) Provide a statement explaining your performance and choice to retake the course(s). Do NOT submit personal statements that do not pertain to the prompt (450 word limit)

Part Seven – Final Submittal

To ensure your supplemental application is complete, please reopen your submitted supplemental application in your Cal Apply account. Your completed supplemental application should appear complete and filled out as you submitted it. If it appears blank, please notify CSUSM Extended Learning at el.inquiry@csusm.edu as soon as possible.
