

BASIC SKILLS
REGIONAL PARTNERSHIP

CSUSM in Partnership with the San Marcos Writing Project

~ Presents ~

Writing Center Study Group

Facilitators:

Evan Smith, Director of the Cal State San Marcos Writing Center

and

Ann Beatty, Director of the Rancho Buena Vista School Writing Center

This two-day workshop is for middle and high school teachers and college faculty who are interested in starting a writing center on their campus. The workshop includes an overview of writing center pedagogy, a tutor training simulation, a collaborative discussion on preparing a center, and resources vital to the success of writing tutoring. Attendees are invited to three Zoom meetings in the Fall for follow-up on the training, continued collaborative discussion, and further support.

Dates:	Friday, June 21 and Saturday, June 22, 2019
Times:	9:00 am – 3:00 pm
Fee:	Participants will receive a $200 for participating in the two days and follow up Zoom meetings
Audience:	Middle and high school teachers and community college faculty
Location:	University Hall 444 at Cal State San Marcos
Register:	http://sdcoe.k12oms.org/1020-166034

Space is limited to 20 teachers – please register soon!

Light Breakfast will be provided. Lunch on your own.

