

Candidate Quick Guide

General Information

- ✓ Candidates must follow the CSU Travel Policy and CSUSM Travel Guidelines. The university assumes no financial responsibility for expenditures incurred by individuals who fail to adhere to policy.
- ✓ All expenses must be ordinary, reasonable, not extravagant, necessary, and allowable.
- ✓ Keep track of all expenses related to the trip, including itemized receipts for expenses $75 and over (NOT estimates or flight confirmations).
- ✓ Upgrades for flight, hotel, rental car, or ride-share service are NOT reimbursable.

Transportation

- ✓ The candidate should use the most economical mode of transportation. For example, if it is cheaper to fly than to incur mileage, this option should be chosen. If the candidate chooses the lesser economical mode of transportation, they will only be reimbursed for what the most economical choice would have cost.
- ✓ Travel expenses are reimbursed for the most direct route from the candidate's primary residence to CSUSM and back using Google Maps.
- ✓ If the candidate takes a side trip, the extra expenses will NOT be reimbursed.
- ✓ Please refrain from using third party vendors such as Expedia and Orbitz.

Lodging and Meals

- ✓ Actual lodging and meals will be reimbursed for every 24-hour period up to these limits:

Lodging	$275.00 limit per night, excluding taxes
Meals	GSA Per Diem for San Diego County

- ✓ CSUSM has contracts with three local hotels. Please use one of these hotels and mention the CSUSM Corporate Rate when booking your room (you must call the hotel to make the reservation). Please do NOT use a third-party vendor.
